

THE VIOLET (B3)

Viola sororia — Common violets are low growing, up to 12 inches tall, and can form large, dense patches by spreading rhizomes and fibrous root system. Common violets are kidney shaped to broadly oval with heart shaped bases. Flowers of common violets are pansy-like, white to blue to purple, and also yellow.

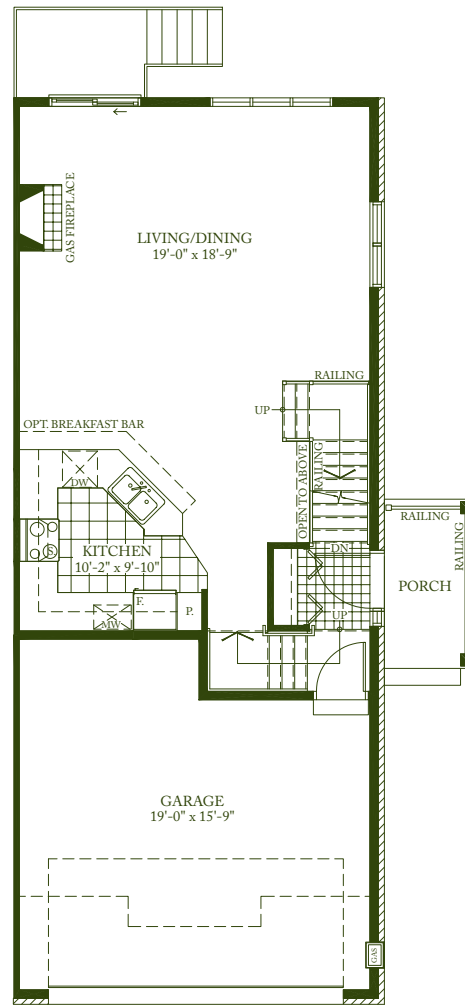

1905 SQ. FT.

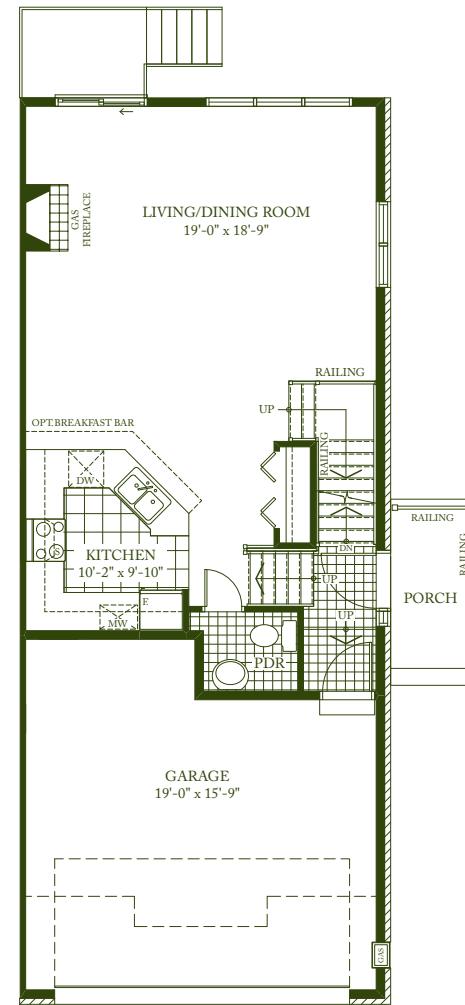

THE VIOLET

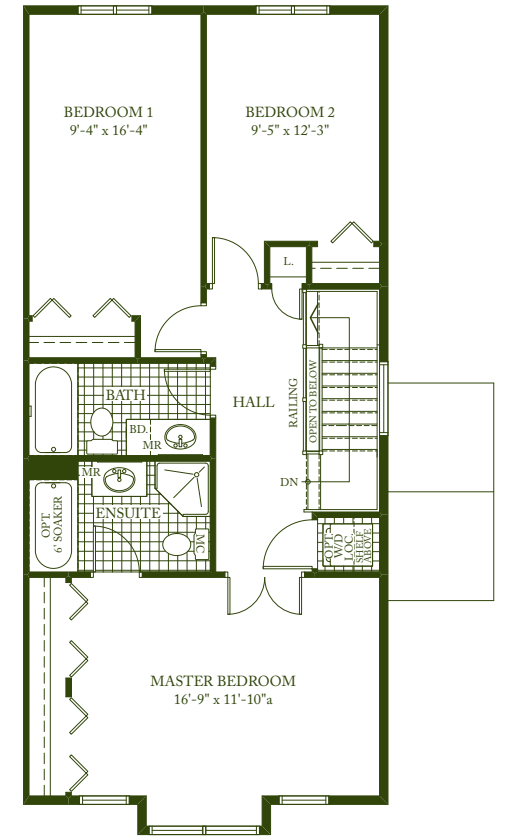

BASEMENT
AREA = 435 sq. ft.

GROUND FLOOR
AREA = 625 sq. ft.
TOTAL AREA = 1905 sq. ft.

ALTERNATE GROUND FLOOR
AREA = 625 SQ. FT.
TOTAL AREA = 1905 SQ. FT.
NOTE: OVERSIZE GARAGE NOT TWO CAR GARAGE.

SECOND FLOOR
AREA = 845 SQ. FT.

Exterior elevations are artistic concepts only—window size, location, and window grills may vary from plan. Actual usable floor space may vary from stated floor area. Kitchen layouts, furnace, HWT and laundry tub locations could vary from plan. Vertical and horizontal boxes, drop ceilings & false walls are not shown on plan and may be required at the discretion of Diamond Developments Ltd. Laundry room, powder room and/or foyers may be dropped subject to grading. July 17, 2006